WHAT YOU SPEND ON CAMPUS ... STAYS ON CAMPUS

Surplus funds generated by all Cal Poly Pomona Foundation operations go back to the University to provide financial and facility resources to benefit students, faculty, and staff.

The following message was presented during the Foundation All Hands Meeting on June 3, 2020:

"I would be remiss if I did not mention the current state of civil unrest. Our community is hurting, not just because of the tragic and senseless death of George Floyd and many others but also because of the reminder that inequality is still alive.

The Foundation must always be a safe place for employees and every single person that walks through our doors. We must be an organization that seeks to elevate and not suppress. We are about learning, growing, improving, enhancing and contributing to the success of the entire Cal Poly Pomona family. I encourage you to renew your commitment to others."

New Summer Items at Innovation Brew Works

Innovation Brew Works (IBW) is open for dine-in, pickup orders and is delivering on-campus! Orders are accepted through Campus Grubhub and by phone at 909-979-6197. We want to offer our sincerest appreciation to those who have supported our operation during this time. Here are a few new developments to kick off the summer season.

Class of 2020 Beer Out Now

On May 16, IBW released its long-anticipated Class of 2020 brew. Class of 2020 is a bold barrel-aged Belgian Quad. Since the start of the Fall semester, customers have had the pleasure of watching this special brew, age in the dining room, until its release at the end of the school year. The release was well received, with calls flooding in even before opening hours on the release date. The Class of 2021 brew has been crafted, transferred into barrels and is currently on display in our pickup area.

Family Meal Deal

IBW now proudly offers customers a Family Meal Deal! Guests can enjoy their choice of 2 pizzas, a family-sized order of breadsticks, two brownies, and four craft sodas for just $24.95. Pre-orders by telephone are encouraged to minimize wait times at pickup.

$5 Pizza Deal

Through June 15, IBW is offering $5 two-topping pizzas! This includes our house-made crust (excludes gluten-free and cauliflower), your choice of sauce, mozzarella cheese and two toppings. There is no limit per customer, so just be sure to mention the deal when you place your order on the phone or via Grubhub!

Convenience Store Coming Soon

The pickup area of IBW is set to be converted into a convenience store by July 1. Guests will be able to purchase a variety of items including snacks, cleaning supplies, assorted grocery items, over the counter medications, sodas and more while picking up their food or beer purchase at IBW. The store's initial stock will come mainly from the Campus Markets on campus, helping to reduce waste of unused inventory on campus while finding new ways to gain profit.

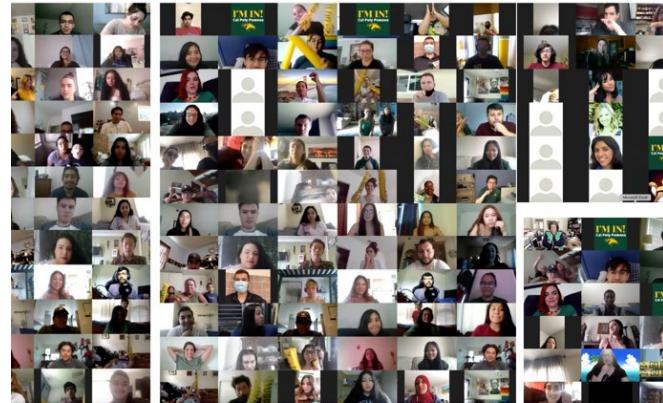

Note of Gratitude

June 2, 2020

Dear Matt & Brian,

Yesterday we hosted our virtual CPP Committed Celebration. I wanted to say thank you for enhancing our event with the “celebration kits.” During these unprecedented times, it was nice that even for 30-minutes, we could create a little joy in the lives of our incoming students and families that joined them. I’ve attached a screenshot from the event, where the University President and many other key leadership members joined in celebrating incoming students.

Finals Week at Bronco Bookstore: Some Change. Some Continuity.

An update from Senior Associate Bookstore Director, Suzanne Donnelly

The week of May 11-15 would typically be a busy and celebratory week in the bookstore; with finals ending, students returning their rented books, and selling back their other texts for some summer spending cash. Happy soon-to-be-graduates would be picking up last-minute regalia and gifts with their families. Everyone would be humming "Pomp & Circumstance" under their breaths. This year, due to COVID -19, things were a bit different, and yet some things were very much the same!

We were not sure what to expect with finals taking place online, and commencement ceremonies postponed indefinitely. Still, we worked in every way we could to prepare students for rental returns, buyback and the week of graduation. We sent students instructions for shipping rented textbooks to the store and added additional options for students to sell their books online to our wholesale partners through our website. We staffed our receiving/pickup window, to accept any in-person rental returns and buybacks, and even installed a drop-off chute for students to drop rental books contact-free if desired. We thought demand for grad items might die down as the reality that there would be no May ceremonies sunk in; however, we extended our Grad Fair deals and shared the news with campus via email hoping for the best.

To our pleasant surprise, the week ended up being busy right from the get-go. Rental return shipments started stacking up faster than we could scan them in. The pickup/buyback/rental return counter had healthy, socially distanced lines every day. The pattern for rental return activity remained the same as any other semester – relatively quiet on Monday and Tuesday, significantly busier Wednesday and extremely busy Thursday and Friday. Every day we received hundreds of new web orders for grad items and other merchandise to process. Regalia orders picked up so quickly that we needed to politely ask students to allow two days for processing before arriving for pickup.

At the end of the day on Friday, out of the 6,731 rentals on record, our staff had scanned in 3,564 books, with approximately another 1,200 yet to be scanned that had been dropped through the chute or shipped. After an additional week of rental returns, we received 2,340 more returns. We bought back a total of 536 books during the week and also processed 974 web orders for a total of $86,501 in sales.

While many things have changed, we are all thrilled to have had a relatively stable finals week here at the Bronco Bookstore.
